VOL. VI. NO. 199.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

A FAVORITES' DAY.

The drubbing the Hawthorne bookmakers got yesterday was something to be talked of for some days to come. Four heavily-backed liberal-priced favorites and two second choices that should have been favorites won. This tells the story of a disastrous afternoon for the layers of odds.

Owing to the condition of the track the attendance in the past three days has fallen slightly below the average, but from now on the track will be at its best, and as an extraordinarily good card is offered for today, a great increase in attendance can be looked for.

From a speculative standpoint yesterday's card was a smashing good one and the betting portion of the public got the money; still there was an absence of good-class horses in all the races save one, which was the mile and a sixteenth handicap. In this particular event was Found at 98 pounds; Ohnet, 95; Scales, 108; Florizar, 107, and Our Nellie, 103, and this field at the weights was an evenly balanced one.

Scales, simply because he belongs to Pat Dunne and with Winkfield up, was made favorite at 6 to 5, but it is hardly probable that as much money was bet on him at that price as there was on Found, who opened up at 16 to 5, and was backed down to 5 to 2. This Huffman's filly, Found, is the "real goods" under light weight, and with her ninety-eight pounds it was a caution what she did to Scales. Master Tally was fortunate in getting away in front and he at once went out to make a runaway race of it, and succeeded beyond a doubt. Passing the first quarter post Found was eight lengths in the lead and after that, as far as the others were concerned, it was a question as to which way she went. Scales was second during the early part of the journey, but when the real racing began in the stretch he gave way to Ohnet, who beat him two open lengths at the end.

The fifth race was a kaleidoscopic affair at the end, and probably no one outside of the judges' stand could tell just what horse really did win. A few yards from the wire the first seven horses were in the closest bunch possible, and the finish was one that is not seen every day. Patron got the decision after a terrific drive from Pay the Fiddler, who was second by the minimum margin of a nose. The going was made to order for the first four horses in this race, and it was reduced to a battle of jockeys, in which Bloss proved the most skilful. Just why Donation was made the favorite would be hard to tell, although, as a matter of fact, he ran a splendid race considering that he stumbled and almost fell at about the eighth post. When Donation stumbled he sharply interfered with Papa Harry, who ran a smashing good race.

The sixth event proved to be a "cakewalk" for the favorite Owensboro, who romped home an easy winner by four lengths, which he no doubt could have increased had it been necessary. There was a battle royal behind Owensboro for place honors, in which Plantain barely got up in time to nip second money from Aloha II., who was becoming "leg weary" after his fruitless chase for the leader. Old Lew Hopper was well thought of by the handicappers in this race and was held at about 3 to 1 in the betting, but never justified the esteem of his backers when the race was on, as he was not a factor at any stage of the journey. The Brecknock gelding was sharply shut off on the first turn, however, and afterwards sulked, so this accounts in part for his poor showing.

It seemed on paper that Scarlet Lily could not lose the second race, and at the opening, at 4 to 5, the Barnes filly was hurriedly backed down to 7 to 10, and at this price the ring took a world of money on the supposition that the filly would not be able to get away well enough to win. This foolish idea of the bookmakers, however, did not work out well, for when Starter Holtman gave the signal Scarlet Lily was second, and going to the front before the half mile post was reached she managed to stay there to the end, eventually winning pulled up by six open lengths. Second to Scarlet Lily was Locust Blossom, who ran a smashing good race and is probably on the improving list. Little Boy Blue, being affected in the wind, "blew his horn" all the way, but nevertheless landed in third place.

Jake Marklein is certainly one of the best men with two-year-olds in the business, and with Bengal and Barbara M. he captured both of the juvenile events.

The first was at five furlongs, for colts and geldings, and Bengal, with Tally up, was the favorite at 9 to 5, there being no less than a half dozen other "hot things" heavily backed besides him in the race. Starter Holtman was good to Bengal and let him off about two lengths in front of his field, and after that there was nothing to it but Bengal, who flashed by the wire two open lengths in front of Little Henry. The latter is a recent arrival from the Canadian circuit, and is by Tom Griffin's once famous horse, Henry Young, out of Lizette.

Barbara M., in the third race, was the second two-year-old that Marklein scored with and like Bengal she was favored by the start. Barbara was sent away flying and she won all the way. Audie was second and Rega third to the Marklein filly.

Dr. Kinder, of St. Louis, bought Miss Mae Day from Harry Robinson yesterday for $3,500.

Owensboro was run up $300 over his entered price of $400 by P. Civill, but was retained by his owner. A. C. Clark bought Owensboro out of a selling race from P. Civill early this spring at Lakeside.

The Prairie Stakes at five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds is the main feature of this afternoon's attractive card. It has a good field named to start with Jimenez the top-weight and Handy Man lowest in the scale. Senator O'Brien's sturdy colt Wild Pirate, fresh from St. Louis, where he was a good performer, makes his debut here and will be likely to beat more than will beat him. Fancy Wood, Sortie, Harry Herendeen and Possart will all be likely to have a following. With a good track in prospect this stake should furnish a hotly contested and pleasing race.

A steeplechase with an entry of six well seasoned performers is another feature that should draw well and a six furlongs dash with such speedy sprinters as Found, Georgie, Sim W., The Lady in Blue, Maggie Davis, Miss Mae Day, Highland Lad and Chappaqua holds out promise of a fine race and a rattling good finish. The other races show such good performers as Barbara M., Cora Goetz, Princess Tatyana, Sad Sam, Fondo, Sauber, The Lady, Mellocole, Tuthill, Molo, Blue Lick, Greatland, Handpress and Judge Denny among the entries, and altogether there seems to be abundant reasons for paying Hawthorne a visit this afternoon.

T. SLOAN.

Concerning Tod Sloan's return to this country for the purpose of accepting a single mount in the Futurity, Morning Telegraph of Tuesday says:

"Tod Sloan will be as much of a feature on Futurity day as will the rich race. He has come all the way from England to ride in this event, and in this alone, as he expressed his intention of returning as soon as he can get

Winner—Ch. c, by Lord Esterling—Welcome.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Salve smothered his field with speed and was under restraint all the way, but ran out in the stretch and Daly had to grab him up several times to straighten him. Virginia T. closed a big gap from a slow beginning. Coburn was at work on her all the last quarter. Obey did fairly well. Maltese Cross was bumped into and knocked about on the backstretch and stopped.

Scratched—20039 Badge Bell, 100; 20134 Matanzas, 100.

Went to post at 4:17. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. The first two fought it out closely through the last sixteenth. Bell Punch would have won had Daly been able to keep him straight. He swerved under punishment from the outside to the inside in the last eighth. Chopin seems to have lost form to some extent, but had no chance at the weights. Sweet Caporal showed speed, but found the route too long.

Coburn had him under restraint to the far turn; when he let go his pull he came away again. Terminus was badly ridden. After being pinched off on the stretch turn Daly let him swerve to the inside in the last sixteenth and then started to workpin earnest too late. All three were driving to the limit.

Fessy F. was outrun in the first part of the race, but came on strongly in the last eighth. Hermencia ran well. It was a weak ride on Nancy Till. Wine Press quit badly in the last quarter. Momentum ran a winning race. Wilson snatched him up at the start and he made up much ground from his bad start.

T. SLOAN.

suitable accommodations on an outbound steamer.

"Sloan's coming from abroad for one race is unprecedented, and what amount of money he is to get for his services is no one's business, but it is safe to say that it is more than has ever been paid for a retaining fee, and pretty nearly as much as figured in one of those Astoria jackpots that there was so much talk about some time ago.

"If Sloan were to be astride the winner of the race, the ovation he would receive cannot be imagined, for though he might now be considered an English jockey, there is a warm spot in the hearts of the home school of racegoers that would burst into a flame were he to come here and take the rich prize from one of the home boys.

"It is just possible that Tod would give the biggest part of his earnings to win the race, as it would increase his reputation both here and abroad, and make him one of the central figures in the history of American racing and American jockeys.

"Sloan's accident a few weeks ago in England has thrown him back a bit in his riding, as he has not had a mount since the occurrence, but he is a hard working chap and keeps in the best shape possible, consequently he will do as much training as a pugilist for the coming Futurity.

"Yesterday he was at Sheephead Bay working horses and doing all sorts of athletic stunts that would be likely to put him in shape for a hard race. He began with a leg up on one of Dave Sloan's horses, then he tried others; in fact, he was a busy young man all the forenoon.

"He took a look over Mr. Whitney's horses and was much struck with Ballyhoo Bay, and when he was told that the colt had put a work over the course on Saturday that was promising he almost intimated that he would like the mount.

"How fast did he work?" asked Sloan.

"Three-quarters in 1:14½, with Odom up and his weight. He was only asked to go in 1:17, but the boy could not hold him down."

"I hope the one that I ride will do as well as that," was his reply. Then he walked away slapping his leg with his English ash stick as though in meditation, conjuring how he would ride such a horse down the Futurity hill.

"The final trials of the Futurity candidates will not be performed until later in the week,
when some fast work will surely be reported,
and it may be that something will loom up that will show enough to warrant its having a chance against the strong hands of the Messrs.
Keene and Whitney. But it is hardly likely."

DIED AT THE TRACK.

An incident of a sad type marked the racing at Windsor Monday and was thus described in a telegram to a Cincinnati newspaper: "There was one unexpected and most unwelcome visitor at the Windsor track this afternoon.
Just as the horses were finishing in the fourth race, death unbidden slipped into the grandstand and claimed a victim. While Fantasy and Topmast were fighting it out through the stretch and the occupants of the stand, those at least who had wagered on that pair, were manifesting the interest which they felt in the outcome of the struggle
by wildly enthusiastic shouts, an old man who had been intently watching the equine battle for supremacy was seen to clutch convulsively at the air, stagger and fall.

"The crowd at large, oblivious of what had happened, continued to yell like mad, but persons near by sprang to the assistance of the prostrate man, while a messenger hastened to the betting inclosure to have summoned to the aid of the unfortunate a physician, if any might be present. One responded to the call and hastened into the grandstand, but he arrived too late. He found not a patient, but a corpse. The one to whose aid he had hurried had expired almost as soon as he had sunk to the floor, heart failure and extreme old age being the cause of his demise. The deceased was William Morton, a well known and highly respected citizen of Windsor.
He was upward of eighty years of age, and for more than forty years had been a deputy collector of customs at Windsor, having long since been placed on the superannuated list. The news of his death rapidly spread through the grandstand and betting ring and occasioned great excitement."

Winner—Ch. g. by Ben Strome—Begum.
Went to post at 2:15. Off at the first break to a fair start. Won handily; second whipped out; third, fourth and fifth driving hard. Bengal was the best and after being favored by the start won all the way. He is a fairly good gelding and improves with racing. Little Henry ran a good race and was also well ridden, as Bloss nursed him cleverly though the stretch when the colt was tired enough to lie down. The Elk got into a jam at the start and had a rough journey throughout. Poyntz made up a lot of ground in the stretch. Cluster got away poorly and made a good showing. He can probably beat this kind from now on. William Boyer ran a bad race. Remark showed some speed but not much.

Overweights—Remark, 3 pounds.
Bengal, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Little Henry, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. The Elk, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Jim Gore—Red Veil.
Went to post at 2:55. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easing up; second cleverly. Third, fourth and fifth were driving to the limit. Scarlet Lily was much the best, was lucky in getting away in the first division and won all the way. Locust Blossom had some bad luck but overcame it gamely and seems to be rounding into her best form. Little Boy Blue was right there all the way. Chisel was hemmed in all the way down the backstretch and never got through until the stretch was reached, then he did nothing sensational and was hardly up to the bruising rush. Woodranger ran a smashing good race. Charley Moore seemed dangerous on the on the far turn, but quit in the stretch.

Scratched—15698 Syra, 113; 19307 Percussion, 122.
Scarlet Lily, place, 9 to 20; show, out. Locust Blossom, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Little Boy Blue, show, 4 to 1. Chisel, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Masetto—Banka's Daughter.
Went to post at 3:30. Off at the first break to a good start. Won well in hand; second and third driving. Barbara M. ran much the best race. She got away well in her stride, had no trouble in getting to the front and stayed there all the way without being hard pressed. Audie ran a good race. She faltered for an instant in the stretch but came on again at the end. Regea was poorly handled, still she had no chance of beating Barbara M. to-day. Glove had no excuses and does not seem to amount to much. The first three always had the race between them.

Overweights—Nellie Forest, 4 pounds; Air Castle, 1.
Barbara M., place, 2 to 5; show, out. Audie, place, 5 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Regea, place, 7 to 10; show, out.

Winner—B. m. by Buckmaster—Pickup.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were doing their best. Found liked the light weight, got away fully in her stride, and smothered her field with speed. She seems to be in her best form now and under light weight will be hard to beat at a mile. Ohnet is a consistent performer and possesses quite a bit of speed and staying power. Scales had no excuses and seemed to be running at ease on the far turn but failed dismally when called upon in the stretch. Florizar needed this race and will be hard to beat with a good strong rider up on a fast track.

Found, place, 9 to 10; show, 2 to 5. Ohnet, place, 6 to 5; show, 9 to 20. Scales, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—B. h. by Patron—Madie.
Went to post at 4:35. Off at the first break to a good start. It was a spectacular finish. The first seven were lapped on one another and driving to the limit. Patroon is in fine form and under a smashing good ride won a well-earned victory. The horse tried to run out at the head of the stretch and lost much ground, but through the stretch he displayed great courage and won on his gameness. Pay the Fiddler ran a good race. He was in front at the sixteenth post, but hung a trifle after that. Dagmar stopped on the turn, but came again at the end. Prince Blazes was right there all the way, and with a stronger rider up might have won. Donation stumbled in the stretch and almost fell. Papa Harry was interfered with just as he was getting ready to make his run.

Scratched—6027 Judge Denny, 104; (19937) Maggie Davis, 100; 20114 Oxnard, 104; 20146 Senator Thompson, 99.

Corrected weights—Patroon, 107.

Winner—Ch. c. by De Beauvoir—Fannie Lyons.
Went to post at 5:05. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily. There was much sharp action behind the winner. Owensboro was the best and was never fully extended. Tally always had him in a good position and went to the front when ready. Plantain came with a rush through the stretch. This horse had a very rough journey. Aloha II. was always a contender, as was Lady Britannic. Woodtrice retired after going about five furlongs. Lew Hopper got away all tangled up and never really got straightened out. Besides this he pinned his ears back and sulked all the way. There was a general mix-up on the first turn and Sister Fox almost fell. Scratched—19965 Ben Chance, 101.
Overweights—Lomond, 24 pounds; Dandy H., 1; Lew Hopper, 1.
Owensboro, place, evens; show, 3 to 5. Plantain, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Aloha II., show, 2 to 1. Lew Hopper, place, 7 to 5; show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. c. by The Bard—Water Lily.
Went to post at 1:34. At post 6 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Bard of Avon was given a good ride but was lucky to win under the circumstances. Cherries beat the flag two lengths but Maheir rushed her too much. Had he saved her for the finish she would probably have lasted long enough to win. Edgefield may have been the best horse in the race. He was knocked back to eighth place and moved up fast but was interfered with and thrown back again. He moved up a second time and was again thrown back. Then he had to go all around the field in the stretch. Shaw was easing him in the last hundred yards. Queen Carnival ran a good race from a poor start. Prince Stonemouth showed speed for a quarter. Bard of Avon, entered for $600, was bid to $1,200 and bought by Charles Ellison.

Scratched—(20184)Boomerack, 104; Dossie, 96.

Winner—Br. f. by Purbearer—Hira Villa.
Went to post at 2:09. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won in a drive; second easily. Unslightly won by a fluke. All the others were pulling up at the start with the exception of Precursor and Lun Ferguson. Mayor Gilroy went right up to Unslightly and had her beaten in the stretch, but Shaw took matters too easy, and in the final drive Unslightly was gamest. Precursor ran to his form. The others were outclassed.

Winner—B. c. by Masetto—Sis Himyar.
Went to post at 2:41. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. The Musketeer ran a good race and was well ridden. King Pepper showed early speed but tired toward the end. Lady Schorr was outrun in the early part of the race but closed strongly and would have been second in the next stride. Dublin appeared to be the best but was given a poor ride by Turner and also met with interference all through the first quarter. Termless was tried at waiting, but will not do in such company.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 19 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Gala Day showed speed, was lucky, and was never troubled. Dollie Wiethoff would have had a good chance to win with an even break. She was off seventh and was slightly interfered with in the first furlong. Millstream ran to his best form and was closing strongly at the end. Spurs ran his usual good race, and with a good rider up would have been third. The Burlington Route ran an improved race. Myth, off last, closed up much ground. Teucer ran his race in breakaways. Scratched—20147 Godfrey, 102; 20183 Prince Plausible, 99; 20006 Protus, 94; 20095 Castle, 92. Gala Day, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Dollie Wiethoff, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Millstream, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Br. c. by Duke of Montrose—Theora.
Went to post at 3:55. Off at the first break to a fair start. Won easily; second driving. First Whip was best at the weights and was well ridden. Williams rated him along to the stretch and then sent him to the front and was drawing away at the end. David Garrick might have had a winning chance with a good ride but the fall of Cyrano scared Maheir and he went the overland route. The colt ran kind and true to-day. Pink Coat ran well for a horse just off the cars. He led to the sixteenth and was fighting it out the finish. Compensation ran a good race to-day but quit in the final drive. Einus was outclassed. Cyrano fell in the first furlong when Holcomb tried to squeeze through where there was no chance.
Scratched—(19970)Lieber Karl, 114; 20186 Gonfalon, 104; 19954 Prejudice, 99.
First Whip, place, evens; show, 1 to 3. David Garrick, place, out. Pink Coat, place, out.
